BWW-Cle Theater Tributes—2016
(BROADWAYWORLD-CLEVELAND PROFESSIONAL THEATER TRIBUTES)

Greater Cleveland is blessed with a rich theater sense. It has been the purpose of the TIMES THEATER TRIBUTES, now known as BROADWAYWORLD-CLEVELAND REGIONAL PROFESSIONAL THEATER TRIBUTES (BWW-Cle Theater Tributes), to recognize theatrical experiences that, in the subjective view of this envelope, were excellent and deserve recognition.

These events are separate and distinct from the Broadwayworld.com awards which are open to public nominations and voting.

Only shows performed in 2016 which I reviewed were considered. With the exception of Outstanding National Touring Production, selections were limited to local productions, and to theater companies which were reviewed. Where possible, designers and technicians who were reviewed for local theaters for their productions were considered.

Nominations designated by * indicate my recognition of the most proficient in that category. In rare cases more than one person is designated as "most proficient." Special recognition designations are displayed in alphabetical order, not in a rank order.
